

FC JERSEY PRESENTS...

PRE-HIGH SCHOOL SOCCER ACADEMY & PRE-COLLEGE SOCCER ACADEMY

What is Pre-High School Soccer Academy?

PHA (Also known as Pre High School Soccer Academy) is a program aimed for 11-14 year olds. It's mission is to fully prepare the soccer player for high school soccer both mentally and physically, and to have that advantage come high school try-out day. PHA is headed by former Ramapo College Head Coach Matt Higgins, with input from seasoned professionals (including high profile soccer players from New York Red Bulls) on a day to day basis. We start the age at 11 years old to fully focus our training on what the soccer player can expect in high school soccer and beyond. This program runs alongside any club or travel soccer. This is a professional soccer clinic offered to both boys and girls from 11-14 years old. If you want to play soccer in high school, this program will give you an EDGE. Don't settle for Freshman or JV Soccer. We will get you to VARSITY Soccer through this program.

What Is Pre College Soccer Academy?

PCA (Also known as Pre College Soccer Academy) is a program aimed for 15-18 year olds who have a vision of playing soccer in college. This highly recognized program will put the soccer player through hours of skills, technical, and tactical training sessions with input from seasoned professionals (including International soccer players). The players will be put through their paces with a college coaching curriculum so they will know what they can expect when they play soccer in college.

"My daughter has trained with Matt Higgins and his FC Jersey staff for 3 years. She is a freshman this year and earned a starting Varsity position on her HS team. Obviously, I believe the tactical and technical skills she learned from Matt and his staff were directly related to her Varsity accomplishment. But...believing in herself and playing with heart and confidence, things that were demanded by Matt and his staff, were the key components that put her above the rest. Thank you Matt, and FC Jersey!"

Jennifer Perna, FC Jersey High School Academy Client
